

Latin Diva Series: Las Migas

Formed as a flamenco quartet, Las Migas also performs Mediterranean music and headlines at major theatres and world music festivals throughout Europe.

Formed as a flamenco quartet in Barcelona in 2004, Las Migas now performs a repertoire of “Mediterranean music,” including lively Latin rhythms and pensive ballads. The members, Alba Carmona, Marta Robles, Alicia Grillo and Roser Loscos, come from four cities spanning both the geography of Spain and its cultural diversity –Barcelona, Sevilla, Córdoba and Lérida.

The group has headlined at major theatres and world music festivals throughout Europe. The upcoming tour is its first in the U.S. Their new show, recently launched, begins with an intimate, personal approach and builds in emotional intensity, showcasing the exquisite, heartfelt style that has always characterized Las Migas’ music.

MUSIC
ALBUQUERQUE

Thu, October 13, 2016

Venue

Roy E. Disney Center for the Performing Arts at the National Hispanic Cultural Center, 1701 4th St SW, Albuquerque, NM 87102

View map

Admission

Buy tickets

More information

National Hispanic Cultural Center

Credits

Presented by the National Hispanic Cultural Center.