

¡Resiliencia! The Experience of Jewish Communities in Spain and the Americas

This festival features a week of films, music, food, exhibits, and lectures highlighting the extraordinary journey of the Jewish people to Spanish-speaking countries.

Resiliencia! The Experience of Jewish Communities in Spain and the Americas is a week-long event that highlights the extraordinary journey of the Jewish people in Spanish-speaking countries, focusing on the U.S. Southwest.

The cultural festival features a week of films, music, food, exhibits, and lectures. Highlights include an opening art exhibition, Women of Valor by New Mexico native Natalie Trujillo Gonzalez, and a Sephardic Shabbat Dinner.

View the festival's full program \(PDF\).

HERITAGE
ALBUQUERQUE

Thu, May 16–
Thu, May 23, 2019

Venue

Various venues, Albuquerque

View map

Phone: 505-724-4771

More information

Casa Sefard Nahalat Shalom

Credits

Organized by Instituto Cervantes Albuquerque, Casa Sefard Nahalat Shalom, and National Hispanic Cultural Center in collaboration with the Consulate of Mexico, the Cultural Office of the Embassy of Spain, Centro Sefarad-Israel (Spain), Red de Juderías de España (Spain), Diputación de Lleida (Spain), Latin American & Iberian Institute at the University of New Mexico, Consulate General of Israel (Houston), Jewish Federation of New Mexico, ADL Mountain States Region, New Mexico Humanities Council, and Century Automotive