

Ricardo Gallén at Boston GuitarFest 2019

Distinguished Spanish guitarist Ricardo Gallén performs at the 14th edition of Boston GuitarFest which will take place June 24-30.

Ricardo Gallén is a distinguished guitarist with a flourishing career. His innovative interpretations place him in the top musicians worldwide. Maestro Leo Brouwer praised his “immense creativity and virtuosity, which is sensed by just looking at his hands”,

His rare combination of virtuosity and musicianship has captivated audiences around the world in solo recitals, duets or with orchestras in great concert halls such as the Royal Concertgebouw in Amsterdam, the National Auditorium in Madrid, the Tchaikovsky Hall in Moscow, the Palau de la Música Catalana in Barcelona, the Auer Hall in Indiana University and the Sibelius Academy in Helsinki, among others.

Gallén was recently awarded the Medal of Fine Arts by the Royal Academy of Fine Arts of Granada, Spain.

MUSIC
BOSTON

Thu, June 27, 2019

Venue

New England Conservatory's Jordan Hall,
30 Gainsborough St, Boston, MA 02115

View map

Admission

Buy tickets

More information

Boston GuitarFest

Credits

Presented by Boston GuitarFest and the
New England Conservatory of Music.

Photo by J. Cornejo