

La Intrusa Danza at Defribillator Performance Art Gallery in Chicago

The Barcelona-based, cutting-edge La Intrusa dance company will perform Rojo Manso and Delta Victor at DFB.

La Intrusa is a contemporary artistic creation company formed in 1996 by Virginia Garcia and Damian Muñoz, creators and art directors. They create, direct and produce scenic and audiovisual projects.

Their work includes research and multi-disciplinary approaches based on music, video, and other formats. They combine their own creations with choreographic works for other companies, collaborations with well-known theater directors and advertising.

PERFORMANCES

- Rojo Manso. Someone approaches and I try to fix the encounter... It approaches with good will, but fearfully and I it smell. So never get right in words or gesture.
- Delta Victor. In the international code of signals the message Delta Victor means stay away from me I'm maneuvering with difficulty and Victor means I need help. The meeting of two difficulties with goodwill try to let pass. May they find the truce or build a wall depends on the degree of them impossibilities.
