

2019 International Comic Arts Forum

This year International Comic Arts Forum will focus on Spanish, Latin American, and U.S. Latin comics, and will explore the topic of immigration in comics and cartoonings.

The International Comic Arts Forum (ICAF) is an annual academic conference dedicated to promoting the scholarly study and appreciation of comic art. The 20th annual forum focuses on Spanish, Latin American, and U.S. Latin comics and invites Dr. Ana Merino, Professor of Spanish Creative Writing at the University of Iowa, as keynote speaker on April 4 at 9:15 am.

Spanish comic artist and guest artist Fernando Iglesias “Kohell” (Gorka, Impresiones de la Isla) also speaks at the Festival, on April 6 at 2:45 pm, about immigration in comics and cartooning.

View the full program.

LITERATURE
IOWA CITY

Thu, April 04–
Sat, April 06, 2019

Venue

Rogalski Center, St. Ambrose University, West High Street, Davenport, IA 52803

View map

Admission

Free, RSVP required

More information

ICAF

Credits

Presented by The International Comic Arts Forum. Image: Dédalus en Compostela, by Kohell, from the Vicente Risco Collection.