

Robert B. Church III Lecture Series: Fuzzy Bounded

Lecture by María Hurtado de Mendoza, co-founder of estudio.entresitio and associate professor at New Jersey Institute of Technology.

Award-winning architect and co-founder of estudio.entresitio, María Hurtado de Mendoza is an associate professor in the College of Architecture and Design at New Jersey Institute of Technology.

estudio.entresitio is a Madrid-based architectural office that has extensive building experience with an emphasis on public work that utilizes novel functional solutions without sacrificing creativity or exploration. In 2007, Architectural Record selected the firm as Design Vanguard. Its constructed work has received more than 28 awards and honorable mentions. The firm participated in the 10th and 11th Spanish Biennial, the 7th BIAU, the Barbara Cappochin Biennale, and received the 2012 ArchDaily Healthcare Building of the Year award.

ARCHITECTURE
KNOXVILLE, TN

Mon, April 11, 2016
5:30 pm

Venue

University of Tennessee, Art + Architecture Building, McCarty Auditorium, 1715 Volunteer Blvd, Knoxville, TN 37996

View map

Admission

Free and open to the public

More information

Robert B. Church III Memorial Lecture Series

Credits

Organized by University of Tennessee's Robert B. Church III Memorial Lecture Series. Photo by estudio.entresitio