

Chano Domínguez: Flamenco Sketches in Los Angeles

“Flamenco Sketches” pays homage to Miles Davis through Chano Domínguez’s interpretations of the classic Miles 1959 album, “Kind of Blue.”

Titled for one of the album’s iconic pieces, the event reimagines each of the album’s tracks in a setting that is equal parts jazz and Flamenco. Led by Domínguez on piano, the ensemble consists of Blas Córdoba, vocals and palmas (handclaps); National Flamenco Contest (Córdoba, Spain)-winner Daniel Navarro, dancer and palmas; Alexis Cuadrado, bass; and Henry Cole, drums/percussion.

In addition to Flamenco Sketches, Domínguez will perform Piano Ibérico, a new piece commissioned by Chamber Music America (CMA).

ABOUT CHANO DOMÍNGUEZ

Pianist Chano Domínguez’s style is rooted in an unusual integration between the rhythms and language of jazz and Flamenco, placing him in the top circle of musicians practicing this art-form. His interpretive talents have led him to collaborations with stellar artists such as Wynton Marsalis, Jack DeJohnette, Paquito de Rivera, Herbie Hancock, Paco de Lucia, and Enrique Morente, among others.

His music has also been featured by various big bands and orchestras including the Orquesta Nacional de España, the WDR Big Band, and the Lincoln Center Jazz Orchestra. Domínguez was recently nominated for his fourth Grammy for his release featuring the cantaor Blas Cordoba, called Bendito.

MUSIC
LOS ANGELES

Fri, June 01, 2018
8:30 pm

Venue

John Anson Ford Amphitheatre,
2580 Cahuenga Blvd E, Los Angeles, CA 90068

View map

Phone: 323-461-3673

Admission

Buy tickets

More information

The Ford Theatre

Credits

Presented in collaboration with the Fountain Theatre, Stanford Live and Musical Instruments Museum, and supported by Presenter Consortium for Jazz, a program of Chamber Music America funded through the generosity of the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation