

Constructing Albert at Newport Beach Film Festival

“Constructing Albert” shows the attempt of chef Albert Adrià, brother of Ferrán Adrià, to escape the shadow of the now legendary elBulli and enter the Pantheon of great chefs.

Founded in 1999, the Newport Beach Film Festival has evolved into a prestigious multicultural event, attracting over 55,000 attendees to Orange County. Screening over 350 films in 8 days, NBFF prides itself on bringing the best in new, local, international and critically acclaimed cinema to Newport Beach.

CONSTRUCTING ALBERT

- On Friday, April 27, at 5:30 pm. Buy tickets.
- On Thursday, May 3, at 12:45 pm. Buy tickets.
- Directed by Laura Collado & Jim Loomis, Spain, 2017, 82 minutes. In Spanish with English subtitles. View trailer.

At just fifteen, without vocation or aspiration, Albert Adrià reluctantly started

FILM
LOS ANGELES

Fri, April 27–
Thu, May 03, 2018

Venue

The Lot, 999 Newport Center Drive,
Newport Beach, CA 92660

View map

More information

Newport Beach Film Festival

Credits

Presented by Newport Beach Film Festival

working with his brother as they created elBulli, a 3-star Michelin restaurant. He soon found in cuisine a blank canvas on which to experiment and express his previously untapped creativity. Two years after elBulli closed its doors, Albert is in the midst of a herculean creative adventure. This is Albert Adrià's proclamation of self-assurance, his attempt to escape the shadow of the now legendary elBulli and enter the Pantheon of great chefs.