

Danzantes at Divulge Dancers' Film Festival 2019

This documentary reflects on dance as art, as therapy, as communication, as self-expression in a film that takes a snapshot of what it means to dance in today's world.

DANZANTES

- Directed by Juan Vicente Chulia, Spain, 2019, 82 minutes.
- Watch trailer.

Filed in 14 cities in 9 countries, this documentary ties together apparently unconnected themes and dance styles all over the globe: Flamenco in Tokyo, dancers with Down Syndrome in Madrid, the National Dance Company of Spain, groups of urban dancers in Santo Domingo, the First Dancer of the Helsinki Baller, and a 70 years old dancer in Pescara, Italy.

FILM
LOS ANGELES

Sat, November 23, 2019
5:30 pm

Venue

Deborah Brockus Studio 618 B
Moulton Ave, Los Angeles, CA,
90031

View map

Admission

Free. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis

More information

Divulge Dancers' Film Festival

Credits

Presented by Divulge Dancers' Film Festival

ABOUT JUAN VICENTE CHULIÁ

Director Juan Vicente Chuliá has worked as cinematographer, cultural journalist and film critic for over 25 years. He is currently the coordinator of the Madrid's Contemporary Music Association, and founder of EPOS LAB at Centro Conde Duque in Madrid. He's been doing camera work for companies like Twitter, Editorial Planeta and Antena 3 TV. Danzantes is his third long featured film after Temperado and El Proceso (2017).