

Maria Bermudez: Sonidos Gitanos

Ambassador of Gypsy culture and critically acclaimed dancer Maria Bermudez brings her internationally successful “Gypsy Sounds” back to L.A. for two nights only.

Officially celebrated by the city of Jerez de la Frontera as an Ambassador of Gypsy culture, Maria Bermudez is a critically acclaimed director, choreographer, and lead dancer. She brings her internationally successful Sonidos Gitanos (Gypsy Sounds) back to Los Angeles for two nights only, featuring master musicians from her adopted home of Jerez, the “birthplace of Flamenco.”

Since 1995, Sonidos Gitanos has presented California audiences unique opportunities to experience Flamenco in its most authentic form, laced with spontaneity, improvisation and highlighting the most accomplished dancers Spain offers with distinctive and ever-evolving performances.

SONIDOS GITANOS: CONVIVENCIA

- On Saturday, November 18 at 8 pm. Buy tickets.
- On Sunday, November 19 at 6 pm. Buy tickets.

PERFORMING ARTS
LOS ANGELES

Sat, November 18–
Sun, November 19, 2017

Venue

El Portal Theatre, 5269 Lankershim Blvd,
North Hollywood, CA 91601

View map

More information

El Portal Theatre

Credits

Presented by El Portal Theatre. Photo by
Triana Reyes