

Miguel Bosé U.S. Tour in Temecula

Spanish musician and actor Miguel Bosé tours the United States on his “Estaré” tour.

Considered one of the great figures of late Spanish pop music of the late 20th century and the beginning of the next century, Miguel Bosé has placed much of his works at the top of the lists of best-selling records in Spain, Latin America, and several European countries. He has released more than 20 albums, and was recognized as the Latin Recording Academy Person of the Year in 2013.

During his career as an international pop star, Bosé has portrayed a cross dresser in Pedro Almodovar’s High Heels, worked with Andy Warhol on two videos, and witnessed the banning of his video No Encuentro un Momento Pa’ Olvidar for its controversial sexual imagery.

Defying the contemporary formula for pop success, his music has been described as a global fusion of many musical influences. At the center of this is all the passion and expression of a Latin artist, and Miguel Bosé has constantly incorporated more diverse musical elements than many of the genre’s crossover pop stars.
