The 2018 edition of LALIFF (Los Angeles Latino International Film Festival), presented by the Latino Film Institute, brings to LA the acclaimed Spanish films “Perfect Strangers” and “Lots of Kids, a Monkey and a Castle.”

Founded in 1997, LALIFF is a premier international event dedicated to showcasing the entirety of human experience from the Latino perspective, whether through film, television, digital, music, art, or any other vehicle, regardless of platform.

The Latino Film Institute is bringing back LALIFF in 2018 with filmmaker Alex de la Iglesia introducing his latest film “Perfect Strangers”.
