

Rosana Master Class at UCLA and Concert at Club Bahia

Rosana, Latin Grammy nominee for best singer-songwriter, is back in the United States on tour, and she will conduct a master class for UCLA students and an intimate concert at Club Bahía.

In her latest album, 8 Lunas, Rosana encompasses the classics of her career (some of them very well-known singles, while others have gained importance over the years.) The album includes new versions of her greatest hits, featuring various artists, such as Rubén Blades, Fito Cabrales, Mario Domm (Camila), Jesús Navarro (Reik), Sie7te, Susana (Efecto Mariposa), Gianmarco, Abel Pintos, Andrés Cepeda and Dani Martín.

She is one of the most influential Spanish artists of the last decade. Rosana was made known in 1996 by Lunas Rotas. Since then, she has released 8 albums and has sold more than 10 million copies all over the world.

“My concerts are encounters with friends, but people always have an advantage over me: they know me better than I know them. So I perform every night on stage as if the world was ending”, she recalls.

UCLA will host a Masterclass with Rosana on April 16.
