

The Open Door at Starring Europe: New Films from the EU

The fourth edition of the Starring Europe Film Festival provides an opportunity for international cinema enthusiasts in Los Angeles to celebrate and discover contemporary films from the European Union.

The American Cinematheque spotlights festival award winners from Austria, Belgium, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Poland and Spain at the Egyptian Theatre and the Aero Theatre from May 9 through May 15, 2017. The short and feature films screened at the festival embody the rich heritage and diversity of contemporary cinema from Europe.

THE OPEN DOOR

- On Sunday, May 14 at 7:30 pm.
- Directed by Marina Seresky, 2016, Spain, 82 minutes.
- In Spanish with English subtitles. View trailer.

FILM
LOS ANGELES

Sun, May 14, 2017

Venue

Aero Theatre, 1328 Montana Avenue,
Santa Monica, CA 90403

View map

Admission

Buy tickets

More information

Starring Europe

Credits

Presented by the American Cinematheque and the consulates of EU members: Austria, Belgium, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Poland, Spain. Sponsored by Bank of West, with additional support from BMW, Dream Racing, DWF and Otto Nemenz. The Open Door is presented with the support of SPAIN arts & culture and the Film and Audiovisual Arts Institute (ICAA) of Spain.

Rosa is a middle-aged sex worker in Madrid whose neighbor, a Russian sex worker, overdoses, forcing the woman's young daughter to seek refuge in Rosa's apartment. This compelling drama took home the best screenplay prize at the Guadalajara International Film Festival.

An admirably abrasive by-women-for-women drama.

—Jonathan Holland, The Hollywood Reporter