The Miami International Film Festival is considered the preeminent film festival for showcasing Ibero-American cinema in the U.S.

Since its first edition, which opened on February 3, 1984, the mission of Miami Film Festival has been to bridge cultural understanding and encourage artistic development by provoking thought through film. By bringing the best of world cinema to Miami, the Festival presents the city and the film industry with a singular platform that fosters creative and technical talent.

The 2019 edition, in addition to have the official poster made by Spanish illustrator Ana Juan, showcases a myriad of films from Spain, including the 2019 Goya Award winner Champions, the documentary The Silence of Others, and the screening of the two first episodes of the TV series Gigantes by Enrique Urbizu on closing night, among others.
