

Cabeza by Daniel Abreu Dance Company

National Prize for Dance winner Daniel Abreu and his company present the Miami premiere of a solo dance piece stemming from the concept of construction-destruction, a place of beginning and of end.

The Daniel Abreu Company was created in 2004 and has, since then, presented more than 50 choreographic works. The company's pieces are similar to journeys, paintings and images in action. Some of the productions are halfway between dance and action.

Daniel Abreu, the director and creator of these works, has won a number of prizes such as The National Award for Dance and has been featured in a variety of national and international theaters and festivals.
