

CUBAAHORA: the next generation

CUBAAHORA is a selection of works by acclaimed Cuban artists that paints a portrait of artistic creation in today's Cuba, showing a modern country with an emphasis on the younger generations and their culture.

The Cultural Center of Spain in Miami (CCEMiami) in cooperation with the Embassies of Spain in Havana and Washington will be presenting a multidisciplinary program CUBAAHORA: The Next Generation, about the Cuban artistic scene including: dance, music, visual arts, film and theater and literature.

For more than three decades Spain has been working with the different generations of Cuban artists, promoting artistic expression and intellectual exchange in the island.
