Serrat achieved great success with his album Mediterráneo (1971) and his new show Mediterraneo da capo —where ‘da capo’ is an Italian term that means returning to the beginning— brings back 10 classic hits of the artist, including Lucía, Aquellas pequeñas cosas, Pueblo blanco, Barquito de papel and the famous hit Mediterráneo.

After almost half a century, Serrat returns to the Mediterranean that he never left, and “in times of visas, borders and barbed wire,” the artist presents himself as a citizen of the world, of Catalunya, Spain and Europe, and in particular, a citizen of the Mediterranean Sea.
