

María Toledo in concert in Miami

As part of FlamenGO, CCEMiami presents a concert by María Toledo, the first female singer in the history of Flamenco who performs while playing the piano.

MARÍA TOLEDO IN CONCERT

- On Friday, May 18, at 8 pm. Buy tickets.
- On Saturday, May 19, at 8 pm. Buy tickets.

Singer and pianist María Toledo is a two-time Latin Grammy nominee. In 2015 her album conSentido earned a Latin Grammy nomination for Best Album of the Year and Best Flamenco Album. In 2016, her most recent album Magnetic was nominated for Best Flamenco Album and Best Engineered Album.

A trailblazer in current cutting-edge Flamenco, Toledo has won several awards in some of the best Flamenco competitions, such as the Festival Internacional del Cante de Las Minas, and she has toured in countries as Japan, Dominican Republic, Colombia, Puerto Rico, France, Israel and Mexico.

ABOUT FLAMENGO

FlamenGO presents young emerging Flamenco artists to the South Florida community. The whole program consists of a series of activities related with Flamenco culture in all its disciplines, including visual arts, music and performing arts. It has created a meeting place to enjoy Flamenco in an intimate and relaxed way. FlamenGO supports Flamenco artists from Spain, usually musicians and dancers, many of whom are the youngest generation of artist dynasties.

MUSIC MIAMI

Fri, May 18–
Sat, May 19, 2018

Venue

Miami-Dade County Auditorium, 2901
West Flagler Street Miami, Florida 33135

View map

Phone: 305-547-5414 ext. 226

More information

CCEMiami

Credits

Presented by CCEMiami in collaboration with Miami-Dade County Auditorium.

Photo by Antonio Rojo