Paz seems to have the perfect life. She has a job, a partner and friends but something is missing. There are things she is unhappy about. She feels anxious and burdened but can't bring herself to express these feelings. Until one day she turns to a strange therapy that will make her say absolutely everything she thinks.

TADEO JONES 2: EL SECRETO DEL REY MIDAS (TAD THE LOST EXPLORER AND THE SECRET OF KING MIDAS)

- On Friday, November 9 at 10:00 am.
- Screening for schools. By invitation only.
- Directed by David Alonso and Enrique Gato, Spain, 2017, 85 minutes. Goya Award for Best Animated Film 2018. Watch trailer.

Self-proclaimed international explorer Tadeo Jones is back for another adventure in this 2018 Goya winner for Best Animated Film. After a two-year separation following their expedition in Peru, Tadeo (Óscar Barberán) and Sara (Michelle Jenner) reunite in a quest to find King Midas' necklace. Hot on their trails is greedy millionaire Jack Rackham (Miguel Ángel Jenner), who kidnaps Sara, the only person who knows where the parts of the necklace are located. It is all up to Tadeo and his band of misfits, including fellow-adventurer Tiffany (Adriana Ugarte), some animal friends, and one loudmouthed mummy, to stop Rackham and save the day.

CARMEN Y LOLA

- On Friday, November 9 at 7:30 pm. Buy tickets.
- Q&A after the movie with filmmaker Arantxa Echevarria.
- Directed by Arantxa Echevarria, Spain, 2018, 103 minutes. In Spanish with English subtitles. Watch trailer.

Making her feature film debut, writer-director Arantxa Echevarria creates an impassioned love story both universal and sharply specific, following the blossoming romance of two young gypsy girls. Carmen (Rosy Rodriguez) and Lola (Zaira Morales) find freedom in each other's company as they experience a true sense of identity for the first time. But as their relationship grows deeper, they face fallout from Madrid's traditional Roma community. Featuring a vibrant cast of first-time actors, Carmen y Lola premiered at the 2018 Cannes Film Festival (Directors' Fortnight) and marks the start of a promising filmmaking career.
