Spanish literature assures its place at this year's edition of the Miami Book Fair with the presence of 10 authors.

The Miami Book Fair, an eight-day literary event recognized as one of the nation's finest book festivals, brings readers and writers together from the United States and around the world.

The Fair's IberoAmerican Program presents more than 80 Spanish-speaking authors from around the world –including Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, El Salvador, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Peru, Portugal, Spain, Sri Lanka, Uruguay and Venezuela– comprised of poets, short-story writers, visual artists and photographers, essayists, mystery writers, and novelists, in a series of readings and discussions.
