

35th Annual Minneapolis St. Paul International Film Festival

The Minneapolis St. Paul International Film Festival, Minnesota's premiere annual showcase of international independent cinema reaches its 35th edition.

Among the largest international film events in the country, the Minneapolis St. Paul International Film Festival (MSPIFF), annually presents 200+ new, award-winning films from 70+ countries worldwide, drawing 40,000 attendees each year and growing to its hub on the Mississippi River in Minneapolis.

Spain's distinctive and wide-ranging film industry is increasingly represented at this celebration of cinema which, in 2016, will present 9 notable works by Spanish filmmakers.

Over 3 decades, MSPIFF has provided an opportunity for audiences to experience new cultures and ideas, and invited filmmakers and filmgoers alike to connect over their shared passion for the art of film.
