

Live Source presents 'Bohemian Lights'

Through a groundbreaking integration of film with live theatre, 'Bohemian Lights' unravels a dark whirlwind satire of political Spain and her starving artists.

Set in 1975 Madrid, Bohemian Lights chronicles the last night poet Max Estrella's life, as he wanders through a city mired in corruption and political unrest.

This production represents the world premiere of a new adaptation of Ramón Valle-Inclán's masterwork Luces de Bohemia, the English-language U.S. premiere, and only the second ever U.S. production in any capacity.

BOHEMIAN LIGHTS

- After Ramón Valle-Inclán's Luces de Bohemia. Adapted by Live Source with Fernando Gonzalez. With Andrew Bridges, Kate DaRocha, Lori Felipe-Barkin, Jose Mercado, Kevin Michael Murphy & Dylan Wittrock.
- Director: Tyler Mercer. Choreographer: José Rivera Jr. Produced by Live Source.
- Set: Alan Brincks and Tyler Mercer Costumes: Michelle Persoff. Lights: Joanna Emmott. Sound: Shawn Durbin. Additional Music: Neil Quillen. Video: Mark Costello. Dramaturgy: Fernando Gonzalez. Production Stage Manager: Alan Brincks. Film Cinematography: David Baloché. Additional Video: Quinlan Orear. Production Assistants: Adriane Moreno & Molly Tellekson.

Buy tickets online and watch Bohemian Lights teaser.

PERFORMING ARTS
NEW YORK

Sat, January 11–
Sun, January 12, 2014

Venue

Pregones Theater, 571 Walton Avenue,
Bronx, NY 10451

View map

Phone: 718-585-1202

More information

Live Source

Credits

Film funding made possible by The Puffin Foundation. Bohemian Lights On Stage developed with support from Pregones Theater. Presented in partnership with Spain Culture New York - Consulate General of Spain.