

Diary of New York

An exhibition of drawings by the artist Fernando Bellver, awarded in 2008 with Spain's National Prize of Engraving.

Throughout his career New York appears as the stage for Fernando Bellver's visual reflection. Evidence is found in this exhibition through drawings dedicated to films, or etchings which add a Goyesque irony to Rauschenberg's pop dadaism or Warhol's impersonality.

Fernando Bellver is one of the most prominent Spanish artists and has received numerous awards including the National Graphic Arts Award.

Opening exhibition on Thursday, December 4th at 7 pm.
