Grammy award-winning and multi-platinum artists Enrique Iglesias and Ricky Martin embark on a 26-date North American tour together this fall, and are coming to New York City's Madison Garden for one night only.

Two of the biggest names in pop and Latin music with dozens of #1 songs and millions of albums sold come together to deliver renowned hits as part of their historic North American arena tour. Latin music's newest sensation Sebastian Yatra joins the outing as special guest.

The 26-date North America tour will kick off on September 25th in Las Vegas at MGM Grand Garden Arena with stops in Boston, Chicago, Los Angeles, Miami and more, before wrapping November 20th in Anaheim at Honda Center.

ENRIQUE IGLESIAS

Born in Spain in 1975, Enrique Iglesias, is the son of popular Spanish singer Julio Iglesias. Iglesias grew up largely in Miami and began singing as a teenager. He released his self-titled debut album in 1995 and, since then has sold more than 100 million records worldwide, with a string of hit songs like Bailamos, Rhythm Divine, Be With You, Escape, Maybe, Don't Turn Off The Lights and Hero.

RICKY MARTIN

Born in San Juan in 1971, Ricky Martin solo career exploded with The Cup of Life and Livin' La Vida Loca, followed by She Bangs, Vente Pa' Ca, and his most recent Tiburones from his 2020 studio album. By 2019, Martin had sold over 95 million albums, making him one of the best-selling Latin music artists of all time.
