

Entomo EA&AE at the 33rd Annual Downtown Festival

A duet where contemporary and urban dance mix their own technique to create an animal and insect movement.

Battery Dance Company presents the 33rd Annual Downtown Dance Festival at Robert F. Wagner, Jr. Park in New York City.

Spain's Entomo EA&AE is an award-winning duo created by Elias Aguirre and Alvaro Esteban. Where insects and humans come together, a 12- minute piece by the Spanish choreographic duo has won 1st prize at the Burgos-New York contest (Spain, 2010); 1st prize at the Ibero American Dance Contest Alicia Alonso (2010, Cuba) for the maturity with which it was conceived [...] by an original and daring duo that arouses many existential and philosophical implications in the audience. Entomo is also a recipient of Audience Prize and Superior Dance conservatory Prize at Madrid Contest (2009) and 3rd Prize at the Capturadanza dance-video contest (Madrid, 2010).
