

Juan Genovés at Marlborough Gallery

VISUAL ARTS
NEW YORK

Tue, September 13–
Sat, October 08, 2016

Venue

Marlborough Gallery, 40 West 57th
Street, New York, NY 10019

View map

More information

Marlborough Gallery

Credits

Image: Encendido, 2013, courtesy of
Marlborough Gallery

Marlborough Gallery presents an exhibition of new paintings by the renowned Spanish artist Juan Genovés.

Juan Genovés is one of Spain's best-known contemporary artists. He is recognized for work rooted in Social Realism and Pop with a distinctly critical voice that advocated for political change during the Franco regime in Spain.

Genovés is the recipient of a number of important prizes, including the Mention of Honor at the XXXIII Venice Biennale, 1966; the Gold Medal at the VI Biennale Internazionale de San Marino, 1967; the Marzotto Internazionale Prize, 1968; the Premio Nacional de Artes Plásticas, Spain, 1984; the Premio de las Artes Plásticas del Generalitat Valenciana, Spain, 2002; and the Medalla de Oro.

Opening reception on Tuesday, September 13, from 6 pm to 8 pm.