Children of Salt is a timeless tale of love, loss and hope that focuses on Raúl, an entrepreneur who returns home after 20 years. The musical features Spanish performer Nicolas Baumgartner in the lead role of Camaron.

CHILDREN OF SALT

- Written by Jaime Lozano and Lauren Epsenhart.
- Directed by Jose Zayas.

Children of Salt focuses on Raúl, an entrepreneur who infrequently returns home, avoiding people, and situations, which sent him packing twenty years prior. Upon learning of his estranged grandmother's illness, Raúl again returns home to the beach, in hopes of leaving as quickly as possible. The day brings a series of unexpected meetings, unleashing an array memories. Raúl must learn from these memories, and people, in order to accept his present and move into his future.

The musical features Spanish performer Nicolas Baumgartner in the lead role of Camaron.
