

NYFA's Spanish Doctor's Hours

Receive free advice and guidance during one-on-one sessions with expert consultants in the fields of performing and visual arts, film, and literary arts.

The New York Foundation for The Arts (NYFA) offers free Spanish session of Multidisciplinary Doctor's Hours, which include consultants in the performing and visual arts, film, and literary arts. You will have the opportunity to review your work samples, create an outreach strategy, and get all the advice you need to advance your artistic practice and career.

VISUAL ARTS

- Carlos A. Gutiérrez: film, documentaries and film festivals.
- Alexa Halaby: visual arts, fundraising, collector relationships, public/private collections, galleries.
- Juanita Lanzo: visual arts, alternative art spaces, nonprofit galleries, artist residencies, fellowships and grants, professional development.

LITERARY ARTS

- Ricardo Alberto Maldonado: publishing, poetry and literary arts.

PERFORMING ARTS

- Claudia Norman: performing arts, arts management, production, dance, music and cultural organizations.

MULTIDISCIPLINARY

- Alexis Mendoza, galleries, author, curatorial projects, visual arts, publishing
- Chris Yong-Garcia, graphic design, design, production, magazine

SKETCHING THE FUTURE
NEW YORK

Mon, March 20, 2017

Venue

Casita Maria Center for Arts & Education, 928 Simpson St, Bronx, NY 10459

View map

Phone: 718-589-2230

Admission

Free, RSVP required: clearning@nyfa.org
(use subject: "consultoría artística")

More information

NYFA

Credits

Supported by the Vilcek Foundation, New York Foundation for The Arts (NYFA), in partnership with Casita Maria Center for Arts and Education publishing

To make the most of your appointment, read some tips and review frequently asked questions.