

Ronensbourg

A staged production by Beatriz Cabur presented as part of AENY's main Stage Program.

RONENSBOURGH

- Written by Beatriz Cabur
- Directed by Ignacio García-Bustelo

The Heibers live in a world that's rapidly crumbling, plagued by flawed and outdated social and political models. Meanwhile a group of aristocrats, led by Helmut Ronen, are creating the perfect city as the answer to all of society's problems: Ronensbourg.

The play possess relevant questions about identity, society and home; about the conception of those ideas, and the dislodging of the very things our society hold as important.
