After playing to sold-out Joyce houses for the last two years, the Bessie Award-winning dancer and her company, Noche Flamenca, return this December.

Soledad Barrio's intensity is striking, proclaims The New York Times. Even when she is standing still or walking slowly around the stage, she is the mistress of stillness and slowness. After playing to sold out Joyce houses for the last two years, the Bessie Award-winning dancer and her astounding company, Noche Flamenca, perform another searing show that combines live music with song and dance to captivate audiences once more with the essence of flamenco revealed in its most authentic and glorious form.
