

Txemi Parra: Niño a los 40

PERFORMING ARTS
NEW YORK

Fri, May 05, 2017

Venue

La Nacional, 239 W 14th St, New York, NY 10011

View map

Admission

Buy tickets ($10)

More information

La Nacional

Txemi Parra examines important moments of his life from childhood, school, the traumas derived from drawings, the Boy Scouts, his First Communion, puberty, and so on.

Txemi Parra is an actor, screenwriter and comedian with more than 15 years of experience in Spain. As an actor he has participated both in series, TV movies and plays. The TV shows include El Comisario, Petra Delicado, 7 vidas, Paraíso, La Lola. He played in Cachorros de negro mirar by P. Pedrero, a theater play which toured Spain.

As a Globomedia screenwriter, he wrote such shows as 7 Vidas, Aída, Los Serrano, El Internado or Águila Roja. As an author, he won the Ciudad de Donosti award for La Manzana. And he has presented three plays at CCEMiami (Centro Cultural Español de Cooperación Iberoamericana.)

He writes and acts for the Bilbainadas WebSerie. and was one of the first Paramount Channel comedians and finalist of El Club de la comedia. His first novel, Los muertos no comen yogures was published in Spain in 2016.