

Visions from Spain, a Horn & Piano Soirée

Javier Bonet (French horn) and Miriam Gómez-Morán (piano) present a program from Schumann to the contemporary Juan J. Colomer, together with a challenging selection from their latest album.

Javier Bonet and Miriam Gómez-Morán present in Visions of Spain, A Horn & Piano Soirée, a program that encompasses not only one of the most characteristic pieces for this ensemble such as Adagio & Allegro by Schumann, but also the American première of Juan J. Colomer's work, Visions, followed by a selection of pieces of their latest CD, Just for Fun.

All in all, Visions of Spain, A Horn & Piano Soirée presents a different view of the Spanish musical flavor, connecting the folklore to the contemporary, throughout a musical couple formed by these two instruments.
