

Ibiza Blue at the Richmond International Film Festival 2023

During six days of films, music, panels and special events, the Festival brings movies, documentaries, shorts, and music videos under the theme of “Togetherness,” including the Spanish movie Ibiza Blue by Jesús Lloveras.

The 12th Annual Richmond International Film Festival (RIFF), which will run September 26–October 1st, is one of the largest international competitive film festivals in the Mid-Atlantic, bringing more than 150 film premieres to Richmond, VA, plus nightly music performances, panels and Q&As, red carpet awards, mixers, and more.

IBIZA BLUE

- On Saturday, September 30 at 9:40 pm.
- Jesús Lloveras (writer, director and producer) and Ainara Landon (producer) will attend the premiere of Ibiza Blue.
- Directed by Jesús Lloveras, Spain, 2022, 103 minutes.

FILM
RICHMOND

Sat, September 30, 2023

Venue

Movieland At Boulevard Square, 1301 N Arthur Ashe Blvd, Richmond, VA 23230
View map

Admission

Buy tickets

More information

RIFF

Credits

Presented by RIFF with the support of the Cultural Office of the Embassy of Spain in Washington, D.C.

- Original title: La corriente. In Spanish with English subtitles. Watch trailer.

July 2020. The lives of three young professionals intersect in post-pandemic Ibiza, where they will try to overcome their personal tragedies, rediscover themselves and move on.