

Plácido Domingo le canta a San Antonio

Plácido Domingo returns after 6 years to pay homage to San Antonio, in pre-celebration of the City's tri-centennial anniversary.

Plácido Domingo le canta a San Antonio is a rare occasion to hear one of the greatest voices in the world, "the King of Opera," performing at the Alamodome on October 18th.

This promises to be a one of kind night where Plácido Domingo enchants the audience with famous operatic arias, traditional Spanish songs and popular music. He will be accompanied by a full symphonic orchestra and a Mariachi group. Special guest Ally Brooke Hernandez will also sing duets alongside Maestro Domingo throughout the concert.

It is Domingo's mission to touch the public. As he states: "It's a privilege for me to do what I do and make the audience forget their problems and be happy, if at least for a while."

MUSIC
SAN ANTONIO

Wed, October 18, 2017

Venue

Illusions Theater At The Alamodome, 100 Montana St, San Antonio, TX 78203

View map

Admission

Buy tickets

More information

Alamodome

Credits

Presented by Bags Live