

Films From Spain San Diego

The monthly film series is back to present the best Spanish cinema and culture in the city.

The House of Spain in San Diego, a nonprofit devoted to promote the culture of Spain in San Diego, organizes the second edition of Films from Spain. The event is a series of screenings of Spanish films, held once a month from October until February in the Museum of Photographic Arts. Attendees will have the opportunity to enjoy outstanding films from Spain, from successful recent releases to all-time masterpieces, some of which have never been screened before in San Diego.

- A young girl, who is a thief, and her crooked dad, who is in trouble, get attached to a debt collector whose life is in turmoil too. Together they hatch a plan to solve their problems. With a solid script and excellent actor performances, 25 Carat is one of the best Spanish thrillers of the recent years.

TAPAS BAR (TAPAS)

- On February 24 at 7 pm.
- José Corbacho, Juan Cruz, 2005, comedy/drama, 94 minutes. In Spanish with English subtitles
- Five stories are uncovered around a tapas bar in a picturesque neighborhood of a big city in Spain. The stories are served like tapas, in small savory pieces. A middle-age divorcée looking for love, a bar owner with a low opinion of the human race, two young supermarket stockers with party on their minds, an old lady who deals drugs to finance her husband's declining years, and a Chinese chef. This pleasant collage, winner of the Best Screenplay Award at the Montréal World Film Festival, is an honest, funny and caring praise to the everyday life stories in a Spanish suburb.
