

Bread & Coffee by Ferran Torras

“Bread & Coffee” is a solo show presented by Spanish artist Ferran Torras that experiments with the art of collage, with a feeling of nostalgia through simple and naive compositions using mixed media.

Bread & Coffee is a show inspired by Ferran’s love for those two elements that are deeply rooted in Spanish culture, especially bread, where there is no meal without it and people use it as a tool to eat; it’s very common to go to the bakery daily to get your barra de pan (baguette).

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Ferran Torras is a multi-disciplinary artist from Catalonia with a background in design and illustration. He grew up in a small rural town near the French border and studied art and design in Barcelona. Always eager to find new means of expression, his style comes in many different forms and is always evolving, most recently through experimentation with the art of collage. His work conveys a feeling of nostalgia through simple compositions using mixed media such as pencil, photographs and old paper.

Now based in the San Francisco Bay Area, Torras founded the Wall and Wall mural painting company in 2015 and has worked with clients such as Capital One, Kiva, WeWork, Google, and Facebook. As a muralist, he combines the worlds of art and technology to create immersive interactive experiences.

community through visual arts. The project aims to nurture visual creatives, promote their work, and expose them to the public, collectors, media, and cultural institutions in the hopes of sharing a deep appreciation for creatives and their paths. Its purpose is to both incubate and support the creatives, going above and beyond the normal work of putting on shows, promoting creatives, and selling their works.
