

Don Quixote for All: Reading and discussion of Cervantes's beloved novel

A community reading in Spanish of the classic novel Don Quixote in commemoration of the 400th anniversary of the death of Miguel de Cervantes.

Join the San Francisco Public Library (SFPL) in celebrating the 400th anniversary of the death of Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra with group discussions of renowned novel Don Quixote de La Mancha.

The discussions will be conducted in Spanish and will be held in July and August at various SFPL locations. A limited number of free copies of the novel will be given away to patrons who participate in the readings.

Additionally, on September 10, Cervantes scholars Ignacio Navarrete, Adrienne L. Martin and Alvaro Ramirez will convene at the SFPL Main Library to discuss the author's extensive influence on world literature and western culture.
