

7th International Conference on Spanish Language (CILE)

The 7th International Conference on Spanish Language in San Juan will focus on Spanish language and creativity.

The central theme of the 7th International Conference on Spanish Language will be “Spanish Language and Creativity.” The event will be dedicated to the poets Luis Palés Matos, Pedro Salinas, and Rubén Darío, and it will also be used as an opportunity to pay tribute to the Cervantes Institute on the 25th anniversary of its creation.

The Conference will include a varied program consisting of cultural activities, exhibitions, a festival of Latin American documentaries, writing contests about Spanish language, and meetings between writers and students.
