Spanish writer and visual artist Pablo Vindel will offer an artist talk, both online and at the Crisp-Ellert Art Museum, as well as two workshops as part of his CEAM Artist Residency.

Thanks to the collaboration between the CEAM Artist Residency at Flagler College and the Cultural Office of the Embassy of Spain in Washington D.C., Spain-based artist and writer Pablo Vindel has joined the Spring artists-in-residence program in March 2022.

In keeping with the CEAM Artist Residency's commitment to provide support to interdisciplinary artists who collaborate with various aspects of St. Augustine's local community, this new partnership with the Cultural Office of the Embassy of Spain hopes to connect the Spanish history of the city of St. Augustine with contemporary Spanish art by providing an emerging Spanish artist with the opportunity to connect and explore with the rich cultural ecosystem of St Augustine.

As part of the residency, Pablo Vindel will engage in multiple activities next week to share and display his work and ideas, participating in an artist talk and various workshops in St. Augustine:
