

2015 Meeting of Spanish Scientists in the United States

Save the date for a meeting dedicated to Science

From September 17 to 19 Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. will host this meeting organized by the Association of Spanish Scientists in United States (ECUSA), the Prince of Asturias Chair at Georgetown University, the University, the Spanish Foundation for Science and Technology (FECYT) and the Spanish Embassy in Washington, DC.

The objectives of the meeting are:

- To forge and strengthen links and synergies between scientists and explore new opportunities for interdisciplinary collaboration.
- Create a forum for discussion and reflection on the current state of scientific disciplines and their progress.
- Build bridges to facilitate communication between the Spanish scientific community in the U.S. and public and private organizations of both countries.

View the list of speakers.

SCIENCE
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Thu, September 17–
Sat, September 19, 2015

Venue

Georgetown University, 3700 O St NW,
Washington, DC 2005

View map

Admission

Registration deadline and rates

More information

Official website

Credits

Organized by the Association of Spanish Scientists in United States (ECUSA), the Prince of Asturias Chair at Georgetown University, the University, the Spanish Foundation for Science and Technology (FECYT) and the Spanish Embassy in Washington, D.C.