

Art After Dark

AMA Museum presents a night filled with video art, live music, performance art and a renowned DJ.

Art After Dark, AMA's annual after-hours fundraising event, rings in its 6th year with a night filled with video art, live music by Matias Aguayo (Chile), performance art by Dominique Paul (Canada), and a renowned DJ. This year's event is taking shape to be the most intriguing yet. The exhibition Waterweavers, as raved about in the New York Times and the Washington Post, will stay open late for the occasion.
