

Celebrating Cervantes: a New Biography by Jordi Gracia

On the occasion of the 400 anniversary of the death of Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra, Spanish Cervantist scholar Jordi Gracia will discuss the author's life, his works, and influence on world literature.

In the past 400 years, many have tried to understand the human and emotional dimensions present throughout Cervantes' works. Many have labeled Cervantes as a strong man with an extraordinary talent with words. Neither helpless nor predestined, Cervantes managed to step out of his time to step into our world with Don Quixote.

Jordi Gracia's new biography, La conquista de la ironía (Taurus, 2016), reflects on the irony of how much praise the "first modern novel" has received presently while it was thought to be too progressive for its time.

Presented and moderated by Gwen Kirkpatrick, Professor and Chair of the Department of Spanish and Portuguese at Georgetown University.

This discussion will be presented in Spanish. Reception to follow.

LITERATURE
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Thu, April 28, 2016
6:30 pm – 8:00 pm

Venue

Former Residence of the Ambassadors of Spain, 2801 16th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20009

View map

Admission

This discussion will be presented in Spanish. Free and open to the public. RSVP.

Credits

Co-presented by SPAIN arts & culture and Georgetown University, thanks to the generous support of the Subdirectorato General for the Promotion of Spanish Books, Reading and Letters. Image: Miguel de Cervantes. La conquista de la ironía by Jordi Gracia, Book Cover, Taurus Ed.