This is a dramatic comedy which narrates the love story between Alfredo López, a door-to-door encyclopaedia salesman and his charming, faithful wife Carmen. One day Alfredo's boss suggests something which will change their lives for ever: shoot a home movie of their intimate life to be distributed in Scandinavia. Once they have got over their initial surprise, both decide that they shouldn't let such a good opportunity slip by as they are desperately in need of cash and Carmen is dying to have a baby.
