

Curator's Talk: Esto También Es Ibiza (This Too Is Ibiza)

Curator and Music Historian Adrian Loving offers a talk on the exhibition “Esto También Es Ibiza (This Too Is Ibiza),” followed by a panel discussion with guest Ibiza performers Dwaine Byrd and DJ Heather Femia.

Curator Adrian Loving presents historic images and research centered on Ibiza’s famed club culture history from the late 1970s to the present, and guest Ibiza performers Dwaine Byrd and DJ Heather Femia will share their experiences as guest panelists for the post-lecture discussion.

There will be a DJ set and reception with Loving, special guests and music by DJ Heather Femia playing Ibiza classics past to present.

ABOUT THE EXHIBITION

Esto También Es Ibiza (This Too Is Ibiza) is a photography and video-based exhibition that offers the viewer a slice of life of Ibiza’s famed sunsets, natural landscapes, hippy style, Balearic music, and club culture as shaped through the vision of curator, DJ and music historian Adrian Loving.

Along with fellow guest contributors including photographers Derek Ridgers, Oriol Maspons and Violetta Markelou, Loving creates an audio/visual narrative that creates an authentic, personal viewpoint of Ibiza’s music culture. Legendary DJ Louie Vega, dancer Dwaine Byrd and DJ Heather Femia share oral histories and perspectives on performing there while highlighting Ibiza’s music history and club culture through video installations and soundscapes. Documentary and landscape photographs showcase Ibiza’s natural wonders, indigenous people and cultural spirit.
