

DC Shorts Film Festival

The festival heads into its 12th year featuring the best short films from more than 50 countries.

Dubbed “Coolest Short Film Festival” by MovieMaker Magazine, and voted “Best Film Fest” by Washington City Paper for the fourth time, DC Shorts Film Festival & Screenplay Competition heads into its 12th year of screening the best short films from around the world. This year judges selected 125 films and 6 screenplays paired down from over 1200 entries received from 56 countries.

In all, 24 nations will be represented including 9 German films, which will be showcased in a special event called Das Biergarten (more information below). The 11-day event will include film screenings of shorts in every conceivable genre and style, Q&As, filmmaker workshops and parties all located within a five-block radius in the Penn Quarter/Gallery Place neighborhood in downtown Washington, DC.
