

DOT by Maduixa Teatre

Maduixa Teatre combines dance, theatre, music and technology in DOT, a story of magic and imagination that demonstrates the true power of color.

As part of the 2016 Kids Euro Festival, Maduixa Teatre brings us the tale of the adventures of Laia and Dot through the colorful world of American artist Sol Lewitt. Laia erases every stain that appears on her giant white wall until the arrival of Dot, who takes her on a journey filled with music and color. Together, Laia and Dot transform the white wall into a space of color and shapes, discovering that anything is possible.

In addition to public performances in New York and Washington, D.C., Maduixa Teatre will hold theatre and dance workshops at the Library of Congress and the Kennedy Center for Washington, D.C. area bilingual schools.

Check out and attend other Kids Euro Festival events, including a screening of the Spanish animated film La tropa de trapo en la selva del arcoiris \(The Happets in the Rainbow Forest, 2014\) on November 5.

ABOUT THE COMPANY

Established in 2004, the Spanish theater company Maduixa Teatre has brought to life numerous award-winning productions through its unique blend of theater, dance, plastic arts, and audiovisual technologies. Winner of the 2015 Premio MAX for Best Children's Show, DOT is a multidisciplinary show inspired by the creative mind and conceptual designs of American artist and painter Sol Lewitt.

Recommended for kids ages 3+ and families.

KIDS
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Tue, November 01, 2016

Venue

John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, Millennium Stage, 2700 F St NW, Washington, DC 20566

View map

Admission

Free

More information

Millennium Stage

Credits

Presented by Kids Euro Festival, the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, the Library of Congress and SPAIN arts & culture.