

El Bola at the 2022 Ibero-American Film Showcase

The Ibero-American Cultural Attachés Association presents its annual film showcase, with films from 18 countries, including the Spanish film “El Bola.”

The Ibero-American Cultural Attachés Association presents the 2022 Ibero-American Film Showcase, coming back with an in-person edition highlighting stories of overcoming and resilience. Starting on June 22, this special program offers free screenings of Ibero-American movies in different venues in D.C., including some special screenings at Franklin Park and Mitchell Park.

EL BOLA

- Directed by Acheró Mañas, Spain, 2002, 83 minutes.
- In Spanish with English subtitles. Watch trailer.

Pablo (El Bola) is a 12-year old boy raised in a violent and unforgiving environment. Embarrassed by his family life, he retreats from his classmates, engaging them only through a dangerous game. The arrival of a new boy at school, from whom he learns a new definition of friendship, leads to the discovery of a family where communication and love prevail over domination and violence.

FILM
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Thu, June 30, 2022

Venue

Former Residence of the Ambassadors of Spain, 2801 16th St NW, Washington, DC 20009

View map

Admission

Free, RSVP required

Credits

Presented by the Ibero-American Cultural Attachés Association (AACIA) in collaboration with the Mayor's Office on Latino Affairs-MOLA, the EU National Institutes for Culture-EUNIC, the Embassy of the Czech Republic in Washington, D.C., The Washington Diplomat, The Washington Hispanic, and Cultural Tourism DC.