

El Perro del Hortelano (The Dog in the Manger)

One of the most representative plays of Spanish Golden Age theater, Lope de Vega's masterpiece deals with the emotional complications of class conflict and resonates with today's society.

THE DOG IN THE MANGER

- By Lope de Vega
- Commissioned adaptation by Paco Gámez
- Directed by José Zayas
- In Spanish with English surtitles.

Intrigue and class conflict erupt when a countess falls for her young male secretary. A hilarious comedy by the Master of Spain's Golden Age, Lope de Vega, that explores the pain of love in a classist society.

This production continues GALA's history of adapting classical gems with timeless themes for today's audiences.
