

EuroAsia Shorts 2016

A selection of short films from Europe, Asia, and the United States will be screened at embassies and cultural centers throughout Washington, D.C.

Now in its eleventh year, EAS began as the Asian European Short Film Showcase and remains an original collaboration between a small group of Washington, D.C. embassies and cultural center staff. The festival has presented more than 200 short films since it began in 2006, including many award-winning shorts making their U.S. debut. Each year presents a variety of films connected by a single theme with post-film discussions on the first four nights, offering an international cinematic dialogue.

The theme for EuroAsia Shorts 2016 is What is Home? What is it that makes us feel we belong somewhere, and what do we gain from experiencing travel abroad? Millions of immigrants around the world are keenly aware of what it means to be an insider or outsider, and what it takes to feel at home in a society. Sometimes, our conception of home must be redefined. Memories of home can be a source of comfort or pain, depending on the circumstances –but in all cases, home is deeply felt, and universal.
